

Tea Ceremony at the Japanese Garden in the National Palace

On August 8th, a Japanese delegation from the Japan-Ethiopian Association and Mushakoji Senke School donated a whole set of tea ceremony equipment to the National Palace. They also demonstrated tea ceremony to the Ethiopian guests at the Tea House in the Japanese Garden in the National Palace. The guests enjoyed experiencing the Japanese traditional tea ceremony. In Ethiopian, there is a traditional of the coffee ceremony and it was a good opportunity to exchange our two countries' cultural traditions.

Presenting a Gift

Remarks by President Abe

Group Photo

Presenting a Card

Tea Ceremony

Tea Ceremony

Japanese Garden

Traditional Ethiopian Coffee Ceremony